"Globally, unemployment is one of the most confrontational and argumentative socio-economic challenge. Evidence points out that young people are the ones who suffer the most about unemployment. Hence Struu Artzz Entertainment is a Creatives Club and Theatre Company for young people, we offer entertainment services through: Poetry, Stage Drama, Music, Film and Dance." – Promise Nyalungu

Struu Artzz Entertainment is a socially driven establishment that uses theatre and the arts to develop the skills of young people aged 5-35 and create opportunities for them to realise their dreams and explore their talents. They promote the exclusive indigenous talent of storytelling while using the cultural and creative industry to teach, address problems and suggest solutions for community renewal and moral rejuvenation.

Promise was awarded the Student Entrepreneur of the Year award and the Existing Student Business with Social Impact award at the prestigious Entrepreneurship Development in Higher Education (EDHE) Entrepreneurship Awards for the work that Struu Artzz Entertainment has done. Through the Struu Artzz Africa Network they currently train young rural and township creatives in media, broadcasting, graphic design and other information technology fields while helping them make a living, notwithstanding the pandemic.
