

Abridged Biography | Mr Ntokozo Bhengu

Mr Ntokozo Thabo Bhengu joined the Council on Higher Education (CHE) in April 2010 as a Researcher in the Monitoring and Evaluation Directorate. His work at the CHE was extended to incorporate the coordination of communications for the entire organisation. He now works at the CHE as the Communications and Stakeholder Relations Manager in the Office of the CEO.

He graduated from the University of KwaZulu-Natal with a Bachelor of Social Science Honours Degree in Public Policy and Development Studies. He holds an undergraduate degree in Bachelor of Social Sciences majoring in Politics, Philosophy and Law. He studied Brand and Marketing management with Vega School.

He has participated in many national projects and events concerned with higher education including the CHE Quality Promotion Conference, Research Colloquium as a member of DHET Research Forum Committee and the Association of African Universities (AAU). He has published in various journals and a co-author of the latest book published by the CHE titled "Reflections of South African Student Leaders 1994 to 2017".
